

MAR DE FRADES, BEST SPANISH WHITE WINE FOR VEREMA

Pontevedra, February 13th de 2020.- Verema, the most well known online social community for wine lovers, and the largest in Spanish-speaking, has awarded the prize 'Best White Wine of the year 2019' to Mar de Frades Albariño 2018.

Mar de Frades represents the purity of the Atlantic Albariño of the Salnés Valley. The essence of a grape that strongly expresses the varietal character of a fragrant, fruity, young and fresh wine. The identity of its salt, citrus and mineral notes are one of our hallmarks. As winemaker Paula Fandiño says "we are facing the Ría de Arousa, among eucalyptus forests and with a granitic soil. We elaborate the Albariño grape with respect and honesty to show the world that it is one of the most versatile and desired varieties in Spain and capable of offering extraordinary wines"

The Awards Ceremony will take place next Thursday, February 27 in Valencia. On the 28th, Paula Fandiño will offer a tasting at 5:00 pm to present exclusively the new vintage of Mar de Frades.

The award has been decided among the votes of the users of the website. On the other side " Alma de Ramón Bilbao ", has reached a second place as 'Best Red Wine of the year 2019'.
